Hey Brad,

What's up? I'm writing from the Internet café near my house. There's something wrong with my computer at home, so I can't check my e-mails or surf the Net at the moment. It's horrible! I'm so bored all the time, and you know how I love my computer games. I don't know what's wrong with my computer. I've got a new printer and keyboard, so it's not those. Maybe it's my screen, who knows? Anyway, let's get together soon and hang out. I'M BORED!

Best wishes,

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying <http://www.nursenad.com>. The page title is "Nurse Nadia's Online help...". The main content area contains a letter from a patient to Nurse Nadia. The letter describes symptoms: a bad headache and backache yesterday, a sore throat and fever today, and a stomach ache when eating. The patient asks if it's serious and if they should go to a doctor. Nurse Nadia's response is written below the letter, advising the patient to drink fluids, rest, and see a doctor if symptoms persist.

Nurse Nadia's Online help...

Dear Nurse Nadia,

I think I have a problem. You see, I woke up yesterday with a really bad headache and backache. I took painkillers, but they didn't help. Today I have a terrible sore throat and a temperature. Also, when I try to eat something, I get a stomach ache. Is it serious? Should I go to a doctor? Sick in Surrey

Dear Sick,

That sounds like the flu! You should drink a lot of fluids, like water and orange juice, and get some rest. Your body is tired and going to school or work isn't going to help at all. You shouldn't go out, just stay in bed. If you still feel bad in a few days, you should definitely see a doctor!

Take care,

Nurse
