Last summer I went on a trip to Mexico. The country was beautiful and the food was fantastic. However, I will say that some of the food was too scary to eat. When we were at a small restaurant in Oaxaca, the waiter told us to try the chapulines. I didn't know what they were, but according to him they were very tasty. My brother and I were waiting for our food, and soon the waiter brought our chapulines to the table. They were grasshoppers! My brother didn't even want to look at them. I am more adventurous than he is, so I tasted them. They didn't taste bad at all, in fact they were surprisingly good. They were sour and salty at the same time. I asked the waiter how they cooked them. I never thought they would be so easy to cook. The difficult part is buying the grasshoppers where I live. They don't sell them in supermarkets. Well, I'll just have to go back to Mexico and eat my chapulines there!

People don't normally think of rats as heroes. In fact, rats have a pretty bad name as they are usually found in dirty places. Here are two stories that will hopefully change people's minds about rats.

Birgit Steich of Stuttgart, Germany and her family were asleep in their home one night when two burglars broke in. Gerd, the pet rat, who was hiding behind a bookcase jumped and landed with all four feet and sharp teeth on the face of one burglar. When Gerd was finished with the first burglar, he jumped on the other burglar's leg and bit him hard on the leg. The family woke up from all the screaming and immediately called the police. When the police arrived, they discovered that these two burglars were wanted for many other burglaries.

In Devon, England the Gumbley family was asleep in their home when Fido, an eight-month-old pet rat, smelled smoke in the middle of the night. Instead of running outside to safety, the rat went straight to nine-year-old Megan's room. He started scratching the door until she woke up and realised that the house was on fire. Megan went to her parents' bedroom and everyone managed to get out safely. Fido got a big piece of cheese for being a hero!

1. Gerd was asleep when the burglars broke into the house.
2. Gerd bit the first burglar on the leg.
3. The burglars were afraid of Gerd.
4. Gerd woke up the family.

WICKED

Wicked is an internationally known musical about the witches in the novel, The Wonderful Wizard of Oz. The musical started on Broadway in 2003 and has been going on since then in cities around the world like Chicago, Los Angeles, London, Tokyo, Melbourne and Stuttgart. Wicked is based on the book Wicked: The Life and Times of the Wicked Witch of the West, by Gregory Maguire. The book tells the story of the witches in Oz, Glinda, the Good Witch of the North and Elphaba, the Wicked Witch of the West, and how they knew each other. It might surprise fans of the Wizard of Oz to know that these two witches were actually friends! Don't worry, though. If you haven't seen the original Wizard of Oz, you can still enjoy the show. Wicked shows how these two very different witches became friends and then enemies. Wicked gives the audience a picture of what it was like in Oz before Dorothy, the main character of the Wizard of Oz got there. If you like the Wizard of Oz, go see Wicked, the musical. The music and costumes are amazing and, of course, the story is really interesting.

Drive-ins or Drive-thrus?

People in the U.S. love getting things fast, and one of the most popular ways to buy things is through a drive-thru. In fact, these days people can do almost anything in a drive-thru. You can go to a drive-thru bank or restaurant, and if you want, you can even get married in a drive-thru! In Las Vegas, there are so many drive-thru wedding chapels that it's also called the 'wedding capital of the world'. You can even have a wedding based on a theme, like Star Trek.

Earlier, in the 1950s, though, drive-ins were very popular. A drive-in can be a restaurant, where you park your car and eat in it, or a drive-in cinema, where you watch a film on a big screen from inside your car. Drive-ins became less popular in the 1970s when drive-thrus first appeared. With a drive-thru, you don't even need to stop your car! Who knows what the future of drive-thrus will be. Some day we might be able to have a drive-thru supermarket, or even a hospital!

1. Drive-thrus are popular in the US because people like to get things quickly.
2. Many people in Las Vegas have weddings based on a theme.
3. Drive-thrus made drive-ins less popular.
4. There are even drive-thru hospitals now.

Dear Lucy,
Hello! I am so glad you wrote. It was really good to hear from you. What have you been up to? I have some news... I just finished my white-water rafting class! I know, it's crazy, right? Well, Sally told me about this class, and it sounded really interesting. She said that it was the most fun she had ever had, and I completely agree!

The course wasn't very long; it lasted only three weeks. The fee isn't much either. I paid only £55. What's more, you don't have to bring anything with you; they have the equipment and everything you need there. The best part is that you don't need any experience. That was convenient for me, because I had never been on a boat before in my life! The instructors are very good, they know so much about rafting. At the end of the course, you get a certificate that says you can go rafting by yourself!

Anyway, if you want to attend the course too, let me know. If you sign up, I know you'll have a great time!

Yours,
Lilith
