Reading

11 Read the text about an unusual teenager.

Rob isn't a typical teenager. He's 16 years old, and loves going out with his friends in his home town – when he's there! But Rob's not often at home because he's a brilliant chess player. He plays chess in competitions all over the world. And Rob still does lots of studying, too. He has his own teacher who travels with him, so he has lessons in the morning and then in the afternoon he practises chess. Sometimes has a break from chess because he wants to play on his computer instead or talk to his friends on his phone. This week he's in France, so he can speak French with the other people there. And next week he's playing chess in Canada. Sometimes Rob would like to be on holiday with his family at home, but he has an interesting life and he knows he's very lucky!

Are the sentences True (T) or False (F)? If there isn't enough information in the text, write Doesn't Say (DS).

- 0 Rob likes seeing his friends where he lives. T
- 1 Rob is really good at one game.
- 2 Rob's teacher is a better chess player than Rob.
- 3 Rob sometimes doesn't want to play chess.
- 4 Rob can understand French.
- 5 Next week, Rob is on holiday with his family.
