Reading

11 Read the posts on phobias.

a Melanie 	I've always been really scared of flying, although I know it's a really safe way to travel. I'm lucky because Mum and Dad understand how I feel. But my grandparents live hundreds of miles away, and because I refuse to fly, we always have to travel by car or train, which takes a really long time. But they never complain.
b Dan 	I think mine is a really stupid phobia as I've never actually seen a snake in the wild, only in zoos. But for some reason I'm just terrified of them. I've always wanted to go to the Amazon rainforests but there's no way I'll be able to do that until I can forget my phobia – and that's impossible.
c Ralph 	I don't know why, but I don't really like being close to birds when they're flying around. It's silly, I know, but I always think they'll crash into me and hit me – which of course they never do!
d Lisa 	I'm frightened of the dark and always have to sleep with a light on somewhere. I think it comes from when I was a child and my older brother watched horror movies in the dark. And unfortunately I watched them too and then of course I couldn't sleep.
e Adam 	I've only got one real phobia. I got stuck in a small lift once. It was at an underground station so it was really busy, but no one there noticed that the lift wasn't working. At first everyone inside was quite calm but as time went on, people started to get a bit nervous. In fact, I wasn't in it for long – but now I'll always use the stairs, just in case!
f Sally 	I have a real fear of clowns. Luckily you don't see many of them around so it's not something I have to worry about most of the time! It's because I can't see what they really look like, I think.

Whose phobia
