Match each person's problems (1–5) with the advice they are given (a–f).

- a She probably won't be as cross as you think. And she'll be pleased that you told her. Maybe you could offer to buy a new one?
- b You should take a break for a few minutes and get some fresh air. You're probably not getting enough sleep either so you should try going to bed earlier.
- c I'm sure everyone feels the same but you have plenty of time so you should start revising now. Why don't you write out a revision timetable and then get together with a couple of friends and do some revision every day?
- d They were only cross with you because they were worried. I'm sure you have a mobile phone so you should always call them to let them know where you are and when you'll be home. You should apologise and promise not to do that again.
- e If you're really serious about it, you should start training now. Why don't you go to your local gym and ask to see one of the trainers? They can organise a special training programme for you.
- f Have you tried calling? If not, I would suggest doing that first. If she doesn't respond, you could go round to see her. I'm sure it won't be long before everything's fine between you again.
