I'm happy to hear that you're going to Florence for a couple of months to learn Italian. It's a wonderful city and I think that everybody should visit it. I went there last year, so I can give you some tips. Have you already found a place to stay? You shouldn't stay at a hotel because hotels are expensive.
You should check the notice board in your school to see if someone has a room to share.
You should also find a native speaker of Italian to exchange conversation in your spare time. If you haven't got a lot of money you should try some local street food, it's very tasty. Then, when it's sunny, you should sit around in one of the many beautiful squares and relax. And you shouldn't miss the ice cream – it's the best in the world. Florence has many things to see, but you shouldn't forget to visit other Italian cities, too.
