

Up and down

Take turns to roll the die and move your counter up or down. Complete each sentence you land on with a, an, some, any, much, many or a lot of.

| | | | | | |
|----|---|---|---|--|----|
| 10 | How bananas do you eat in a week? | 😊 | 😞 | Is there meat in this dish? I don't eat meat. | 10 |
| 9 | There are strawberries in the garden. We can't eat all of them. | 😮 | 😊 | I usually only have sandwich for lunch. | 9 |
| 8 | There aren't eggs in the fridge. Where are they? | 😞 | 😮 | I can't find rice in your kitchen. Where do you keep it? | 8 |
| 7 | Would you like apple? | 😊 | 😞 | There isn't sugar. Just enough for one cup of coffee. | 7 |
| 6 | How fruit do you eat in a week? | 😊 | 😞 | There's butter in the fridge, but we need more to make a cake. | 6 |
| 5 | There are cans of lemonade in my bag. Would you like one? | 😊 | 😍 | I drink orange juice – at least a carton a day. I love it! | 5 |
| 4 | There isn't water in this bottle. It's empty. | 😞 | 😊 | I've got pizza and chips. Do you want to stay for dinner? | 4 |
| 3 | I'd like burger, please. | 😊 | 😊 | Can you pass me egg, please? I need one for this recipe. | 3 |
| 2 | Have you got ice cream? Can I have some? | 😊 | 😊 | We haven't got biscuits, but we've got some cake. | 2 |
| 1 | We've got bread and cheese for lunch. | 😊 | 😞 | There aren't grapes, but we have enough for a fruit salad. | 1 |

↑ START ↑
Student 1

↑ START ↑
Student 2