

Countable and uncountable nouns; some/any/a/an; a lot of/much/ many; should/shouldn't

1 Circle the correct alternative.

- There is some/a bread.
- There are five/a tomatoes.
- There is some/any cheese.
- There is a/an apple.
- There isn't some/any juice.
- There aren't any/some biscuits.

2 Complete the text with these words.

some • any • some • a • some • an • three • some

This recipe makes (1) delicious banana cake. We need (2) butter. We mix the butter with (3) sugar. Then we add (4) egg. We stir in (5) flour. Then we add (6) bananas. This recipe doesn't need (7) chocolate, but you can add (8) for a special treat!

3 Find and correct the mistakes.

- I need a apple for my snack.
- There are a soft drinks in the fridge.
- He is bringing any ice cream to the party.
- My brother is baking an cake for my birthday.
- We have any milk if you need it.

4 Choose the best answer (A or B).

- This chicken contains water.
A a lot of B much
- I don't think there are strawberries in this yoghurt.
A much B many
- How rice do we need?
A much B many
- This burger has salt in it.
A many B a lot of
- Is there fat in this dessert?
A much B many
- Are there vitamins in this drink?
A much B many

5 Complete the sentences with should or shouldn't and the verbs given.

- I more exercise to get fit. (do)
- You more oily fish. (eat)
- They so many cups of coffee. (drink)
- He the meat on the barbecue. It always burns. (cook)
- We the children cans of fizzy drink. (give)
- She to eat a well-balanced diet. (try)

6 Complete the text with these words.

an • should • a lot of • some • a • should any • shouldn't • some • a lot of Botín is (1) wonderful old restaurant in Madrid. It started to serve food in 1725. It serves excellent traditional Spanish food, so there aren't (2) American or Asian dishes. The slow roasted lamb and chicken are the speciality dishes which you (3) try. There are also (4) fish dishes and (5) good vegetable dishes too. There are (6) delicious desserts, including cream cake, chocolate tart, cheesecake and rice pudding. It is (7) extremely popular place, so there are always (8) people there. You (9) reserve a table in advance to be sure of a place to eat. It is in the heart of Madrid, close to the Plaza Mayor, so it (10) be difficult to find. Enjoy your meal!