

The right response

Listen to the sentence that your teacher reads and find the two parts of the response. Choose the correct verb form. In some cases both are possible.

e.g. I'm not looking forward to our football match on Saturday.

Answer: (1) + we'll play + (P) = Oh, I am. I think we'll play really well and score lots of goals.

1	Oh, I am. I think ...	A	She'll have been ... / She'll be ... 63 on her next birthday.
2	So am I.	B	I'll be making / I'll make ... us both a sandwich and a cup of tea.
3	I've seen the weather forecast and that's not such a great idea.	C	He will have spent ... / He's spending ... the day at his cousin's wedding.
4	Yes, it's really interesting.	D	It's going to rain ... / It's raining ... all this afternoon.
5	Oh, quite young really.	E	I'm going to spend ... / I'll be spending ... six weeks working on a farm in France.
6	Yes, I have.	F	Our flight is leaving ... / Our flight leaves ... for New York at 5.30 am.
7	No, they cost so much money, and ...	G	She's going to have ... / She will have ... a baby in August.
8	Good luck, drive carefully.	H	... I'm going to have ... / ... I'm having ... a haircut at the weekend.
9	Don't worry, I've got lots!	I	I'll have finished ... / I finish ... it by the weekend, so you can borrow it if you like.
10	Yes, I am, too. Just imagine, this time tomorrow ...	J	... we'll be sitting ... / ... we're sitting ... on a beach in the Caribbean!
11	Thanks, but I'm afraid I can't.	K	I'm going out ... / I'm going to go out ... for a pizza with Tony and Eugene.
12	Very early in the morning.	L	... I won't have saved ... / ... I won't be saving ... enough money for one by then.
13	Of course it will!	M	I'm lending / I'll lend ... you some and you can pay me back next week.
14	No, unfortunately he has other plans.	N	... it's not being ... / ... it won't be ... very difficult and you've got the whole weekend to study.
15	Thanks, but I don't really like it like this. In fact,	O	We'll have definitely ... / We'll definitely have ... a great time!
16	Oh, haven't you heard the good news?	P	... we'll play ... / ... we'll be playing ... really well and score lots of goals.
17	Relax. Our teacher told us that ...	Q	... I'm having ... / ... I have ... a bit of time?
18	I'm late for school.	R	I'll have thought ... / I'll be thinking ... of you then.
19	I'm busy right now, so can you wait until ...	S	My first class starts ... / My first class is going to start ... in ten minutes.