My friendship with Martina came about after the strangest of encounters. I was sitting in the new vegetarian café when a friendly young girl asked if she could join me. When I said it was fine, she sat down next to me and introduced herself as Martina. We were soon chatting away and enjoying each other's company. After we had been talking for a while, I had to go to the bathroom, but when I got back Martina had gone. I was surprised and a little disappointed to say the least, but this turned to anger when I realised she had made off with my phone. And this wasn't just any phone – it was the beautiful new smartphone that my parents had recently given me for my birthday. I couldn't believe that I had been so naive as to leave it on the table. I angrily told the waiter what had happened and that I was going to call the police. But just as I was leaving the café, Martina came running back up the road. When I started to shout at her, she stopped me and said, 'I'm so sorry ... I suddenly realised I was very late for an appointment, so I had to leave quickly. I picked up your phone because I thought it was mine. We've got the same phone!' She gave my phone back to me and then showed me her own, which even had the same fabulous purple velvet case. Ever since that day, we've been the best of friends.

I had a wonderful opportunity to tour Ireland with my parents last week. Had it not been for a friend of my parents' backing out at the last minute, I would never have experienced the fantastic emerald isle, famous for its ancient mythology, legends and picturesque landscapes.

Once there, I realised that there was an endless list of places of interest and I couldn't help wishing I had had the time to do some research beforehand. Nevertheless, we managed to visit some fantastic legendary places. Should you get a chance to go there, I'd definitely recommend Trim Castle in County Meath and the famous Giant's Causeway in County Antrim. Both are a definite must see! Unfortunately, a lot of time was lost driving from place to place and, to be honest, we might not have spent so much time on the road had we organised our time better. However, it turned out fine. We ended up in a few cute villages which were off the beaten track and managed to take in some of Ireland's glorious countryside.

This brings me to my next point and probably one of Ireland's most endearing qualities – the people. The Irish are exceptionally friendly and hospitable. I met some great lads who tried to teach me how to play Gaelic football. At first I thought I'd rather be playing/play the football that we play in Italy. However, once I learnt the rules I had a fabulous time. If only I could remember them now!

Another point to bear in mind is if you are invited to someone's place for dinner, be prepared for large quantities of delicious home-cooked food. Without a doubt, I'd sooner have eaten with Irish families every night, rather than in restaurants.

Would I go back to Ireland again?
Definitely, provided I get the opportunity!
