Tony Excuse me. Hello. Are you Samantha?
Samantha Yes ... Yes, I am.
Tony Tall with short, dark hair. You live in Brighton.
Samantha Yes, that's right. So, you're Danny?
Tony Er ... No. Tony. T-O-N-Y. From the dating website.
Samantha Sorry. Tony, of course, yes. Hello. Nice to meet you, Tony.
Tony And you. So, what would you like to drink?
Samantha Oh ... er ... A coffee, please. With milk.
Tony Waiter ... A coffee, please. And I'd like a cup of tea.
Samantha So, Tony. What do you do?
Tony Well, I work for an American magazine. I'm a journalist and I write about British politics. What about you, Samantha? What do you like doing in your free time?
Samantha Well, I love music. I can play the guitar very well.
Tony Really? I can't play anything. But I can sing.
Samantha Oh, well, I can't do that.
Tony OK. Listen. I'm in a hurry.
Samantha Oh.
Tony Yes, sorry. But I'd like to meet again. What's your phone number?
Samantha Oh ... er ... it's 7 double 99653.
Tony 7 double 99643?
Samantha No, 7 double 99653. What's yours?
Tony Mine? 8640 double 33
Samantha 0 double 33?
Tony Yes, that's right. I'll call you.
Samantha OK. Great. Bye!

Listening 1

- Cathy Have you ever been to Canada, Joe?
- Joe Yes, I went to Toronto last summer, in June. It was great.
- Cathy Oh right. I've been to Toronto, too. My sister Julie and I went there in January two years ago. What did you do there?
- Joe Well, I went with my girlfriend. We went up the CN Tower – the highest building in Canada – and had a romantic dinner in the restaurant at the top. It was very windy. And we went by bus to Niagara Falls. It was a lovely warm, sunny day and it looked fantastic. We took a boat under the falls and got very wet.
- Cathy Oh, we went to Niagara, too. We drove there. But the weather was terrible. It didn't rain, but it was so cold and cloudy that we didn't see much.
- Joe Are you going to go there again?
- Cathy Oh, I'd like to. I'm definitely going again. I want to see the city in summer. How about you?
- Joe Oh, no. I've seen it. I'd like to go to a different city in Canada. Montreal, perhaps. Or Vancouver.

- Man Oh, there are so many to choose from.
- Woman Have you read this one? The Girls.
- Man No, I haven't. What's it about?
- Woman It's about twin girls growing up in Canada. It's really good. Why don't you buy it?
- 2
- Susie Hi Jackie.
- Jackie Hi Susie. Where are you?
- Susie I'm with Tom. He's taken me to see Jude Law in erm ... oh, I can't remember what it's called, but it's really romantic. We're sitting in the back row. I'm going to go. Tom's coming back with some popcorn and it's about to start.
- 3
- Customer Good morning.
- Receptionist Good morning, sir.
- Customer I'm checking out today. From room forty.
- Receptionist Very good, sir. How would you like to pay?
- Customer Oh, by credit card.
- Receptionist No problem, sir. We hope you enjoyed your stay.
- 4
- Boy This is the best thing I've ever heard.
- Girl What is?
- Boy This is. It's by the Hot Chillies. They play the most exciting salsa music in the world.
- Girl Are you going to buy it?
- Boy Not from here. It's too expensive.
- 5
- Customer I'd like to send these postcards to New Zealand. A lot of my relatives live there.
- Shop assistant OK. Here you are.
- Customer How much is that?
- Shop assistant Six ... Er, that's £1.80, please.
