

CEF Assessment Criteria

		Student's name
Component	Descriptor
Information exchange	Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information.
Phonological control	Can speak clearly with natural intonation.
Spoken interaction	Can ask and answer questions from a survey.
		1 = more work needed							2 = acceptable							3 = good							4 = very good						