

Description	Students practise phrases used by (and to help) tourists
Lesson link	Use this activity after exercise 1c
Time	10 minutes
Extra material	None

Instructions

- a As a class look at the picture of a tourist on p.46 of the Student's Book. Tell SS to imagine that the man in the picture is in their city. Ask SS What can you say to the tourist? Write SS' suggestions on the board.

Possible answers

Can I help you?
Do you need any help?
Are you OK?
Are you lost?
Where are you going?
What are you looking for?

- b Now tell SS to imagine that they are tourists in an English-speaking country. What can they say to get help from a passer-by? Again, write all SS' suggestions on the board.

Possible answers

Excuse me. Can you help me?
I'm lost. Can you tell me where I am?
Can you show me on the map?
I'm looking for... / I'm trying to find...

- c Now you have offers of help and requests for help on the board. Tell SS that they're going to role play conversations between a tourist and a local in their town. First each student should think of somewhere they're trying to find.
- d SS mingle and role play the conversations.
