Rima in London

- Interviewer So Rima, did you find a job as an au pair?
- Rima Well, I found a job, but not looking after children. ¹ _____ – an Italian restaurant. I'm a waitress. I work very long hours!
- Interviewer Was it difficult to find a job?
- Rima No. There are lots of jobs in restaurants, hotels, cleaning, things like that.
- Interviewer ² _____?
- Rima Yes, because it's very expensive here and I can't afford to rent my own flat. London is incredibly expensive!
- Interviewer Your English is much better!
- Rima Well, a bit better, but I don't go to classes, because I don't have time. As I said, I work very long hours in the restaurant. But I watch a lot of English TV, and I speak English at work.
- Interviewer ³ _____?
- Rima I don't know. My plans have changed a bit.
- Interviewer Why?
- Rima Well, I met someone in the restaurant. He's the chef. ⁴ _____.
- Interviewer Congratulations! Is he from Lithuania too?
- Rima No, he's Italian. From Naples. He's a fantastic cook.
- Interviewer ⁵ _____?
- Rima Yes. I'm very happy here now. We both really like London – our dream is to open a restaurant together one day.
- Interviewer ⁶ _____?
- Rima No! They don't even know ⁷ _____! You see, they want me to go back to Lithuania.
- Interviewer Well, good luck with everything, Rima.
