

CEF Assessment Criteria

		Student's name
Component	Descriptor
Sustained monologue: describing experience	Can give detailed accounts of experiences, describing feelings and reactions.
Informal discussion	Can account for his / her opinions by providing relevant explanations.
Phonological control	Can speak clearly with natural intonation.
Spoken interaction	Can ask about and compare answers to a questionnaire.

1 = more work needed

2 = acceptable

3 = good

4 = very good