

CEF Assessment Criteria

		Student's name
Component	Descriptor
Planning	Can communicate the main point(s) he / she wants to get across.
Sustained monologue	Can describe everyday aspects of his / her environment.
Phonological control	Can speak clearly with natural intonation.
Spoken interaction	Can give opinions.
Spoken production	Can describe his / her dream house.
		1 = more work needed							2 = acceptable							3 = good							4 = very good						