

CEF Assessment Criteria

CEF Assessment Criteria

		Student's name
Component	Descriptor
Planning	Can communicate the main point(s) he / she wants to get across.
Sustained monologue	Can describe events real or imagined.
Phonological control	Can speak clearly with natural intonation.
Spoken production	Can tell a (personal) story in the past.
Spoken interaction	Can ask for more details.
		1 = more work needed					2 = acceptable					3 = good					4 = very good										