Time for food!

In today's blog we hear about interesting snacks from two teenagers.

Julia

I'm from Oaxaca in Mexico. Many people here like eating grasshoppers for a snack, but I don't. I think they're disgusting! My favourite food is mole and chicken with rice. To make the mole sauce you mix chocolate, salt, pepper and spices. My mum uses fruit and nuts, too. It tastes delicious – it's hot and sweet. It tastes amazing with meat.

Toshiya

I live in Nagano Prefecture in Japan. A lot of people in Japan eat fish but Nagano is not near the sea. There aren't many cows and sheep, so we don't eat much meat. Sometimes we eat grasshoppers called inago. They aren't expensive and we don't get them at the shop – they live in the rice fields. We catch them and eat them with soy sauce and sugar. They are salty and sweet! My favourite street food is hachinoko. It is an insect, too. You make hachinoko from young bees. It's very healthy food – a lot of people here love it!

Circle the correct answer.

- Julia ... grasshoppers.
A likes eating B doesn't like eating
C hates eating
- Julia says ... makes mole in Mexico.
A everyone B her mother
C she
- Julia says people eat mole with ...
A meat B chocolate
C fish
- People from Nagano get inago ...
A in shops B in the fields
C on the street
- Toshiya says ... eat hachinoko.
A a lot of people
B not many people
C healthy people
