

PHONING A FRIEND

Student A

- 1 You have one side of a phone conversation. Your partner has the other side. Put the conversation in the correct order. You start:

Hey, Sarah.

OK. Bye! See you soon!

Hey, Sarah.

What's his name?

Cool! Has he got black hair and brown eyes?

Has he got a brother or sister?

OK, thanks. You?

- 2 Your partner has some interesting information. Listen and ask questions. Your partner starts.

Useful language

Hi
How are things?
OK./Fine, thanks. You?
Cool!
What's its name?
How old is it?
Has it got ... hair and ... eyes?
See you later.

- 3 You've got a new best friend. Tell your partner and answer their questions. You start.

I've got a new best friend.

What's her name?

Lucy. She's English.

Useful language

Fine, thanks. You?
I've got ... (a new best friend)
He/She's got ...
Got to go!

PHONING A FRIEND

Student B

- 1 You have one side of a phone conversation. Your partner has the other side. Put the conversation in the correct order. Your partner starts.

Fernando. He's Spanish.

No, he hasn't. He's got brown hair and blue eyes.

Hi Rachel. How are things?

Yes, he's got a sister, but she isn't in my class. Got to go now! Bye!

Fine, thanks. We've got a new boy in our class.

- 2 You've got a new cat or dog. Tell your partner and answer their questions. You start.

I've got a new dog.

What's its name?

Toby.

Useful language

Fine, thanks. You?
We've got ... (a new cat)
It's got ... (back hair/green eyes)
Got to go!

- 3 Your partner has some interesting information. Listen and ask questions. Your partner starts.

Useful language

Hi
How are things?
OK./Fine, thanks. You?
Cool!
What's his/her name?
How old is he/she?
Has he/she got ... hair and ... eyes?
See you later.

