How to be a Successful Student

Follow these tips and get good ¹g rades in all your subjects!

In class

- Always pay ²a ttention to the teacher.
- Show a ³m ature attitude during lessons.
- Hand in your ⁴h omework on time.

At home

- Always be ⁵o rganised with your school work and your study time.
- Plan a timetable to ⁶r evise for your exams.
- Don't be ⁷c areless: check facts, spelling and punctuation when you write an ⁸e ssay.

5 Complete the conversation with the words in the box.

careless childish get detention mature pay attention to rude take tell me off

CHLOE Oh, no! I have to go to the headmaster's office! I'm sure he's going to ¹tell me off.

JACK Why? What have you done?

CHLOE Well, the maths teacher says I don't ²pay attention to her and that I am ³childish because I try to make the other students laugh when I should be listening. Then she says I'm ⁴rude when I disagree with her, and that I'm very ⁵careless with my homework and make lots of mistakes.

JACK Well, if it's true, you need to be more ⁶mature! If not, you'll ⁷get detention and you won't be allowed to ⁸take the final exam.

6 In your notebook, design a poster with advice on how to get good exam grades. Use the poster in Exercise 4 and the headings in the box to help you.
