

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Match situations 1–8 with the words in the box.

gesture greet shake hands shout smile
translate wave whisper

- when you see your friend across the street and move your hand to say hello: wave
- when your face shows that you are happy because you do this: smile
- when you tell someone a secret in a public place: whisper
- when you are at a noisy party and you want to tell your friend something: shout
- when you move your hands to show the meaning of a word: gesture
- Some people do this when they meet someone for the first time: shake hands
- when you help your friend understand something in a foreign language: translate
- when you say hello to someone: greet

- Pardon? Did you just tell something? say
- You shouldn't interpret messages on social media while you are angry! post
- I want you to say me a story about a princess and a monster. tell
- Tourists often wave with their hands to show what they want to buy. gesture

4 Circle the correct options.

When you travel, it's important to know the rules of communication. In some countries, you mustn't ¹wave / smile with an open hand, because it is an insult. In others, you must only ²shake hands / whisper with the right. In some places, it's important not to ³shout / translate, even if you are angry! There are special ways to ⁴smile / greet people in different cultures. There are even rules about how to ⁵say / tell hello. Of course, in every country you should ⁶say / tell the truth, but it depends how direct you want to be!

5 Write four communication tips for people travelling in your country, using the words in the box. Then share with a partner.

(Possible answers)

gesture greet say say hello say sorry tell tell a lie tell the truth

- We usually kiss people on the cheeks when we greet them.
- It's important to use the right form of 'you', formal or informal.
- Remember to say please and thank you.
- Don't forget to say sorry if you get something wrong.

LEARN TO LEARN

2 Complete the spidergram with five words from the box. Then in your notebook, make another spidergram for body language and complete it with the rest of the words.

describe gesture interpret shout shake hands smile translate wave whisper

3 Correct the underlined mistakes in the sentences.

- My father said a very funny joke at dinner last night. told
- Can you translate the person you saw stealing the car? describe