

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Circle the correct options.

- You and your sister need to make ... dinner tonight.
☒ a yourselves c herself
 b yourself d themselves
- When the boys heard the news, they looked at ... with great surprise.
 a themselves c ourselves
☒ b each other d himself
- I want to go ... warm and sunny next holiday.
 a nowhere ☒ c somewhere
 b anywhere d everywhere
- That's the blogger ... has got millions of followers.
☒ a who c whose b which d what
- Do you know ... who speaks Russian?
 a no one ☒ c anyone
 b everyone d nobody

2 Combine the sentences to make one sentence using the words in brackets.

- I met a football player. His name was Steven Jerry. (whose)
I met a football player whose name was Steven Jerry.
- I have nothing to wear. There is a party tonight. (anything)
I don't have / haven't got anything to wear to the party tonight.
- The new gym opens next week. It's going to have two swimming pools. (which)
The new gym, which opens next week, is going to have two swimming pools.
- John looked at his sister. She looked at him. (one another)
John and his sister looked at one another.
- I'm going to clean my room myself. My brother is going to clean his room himself. (ourselves)
My brother and I / We are going to clean our rooms ourselves.

3 Underline and correct the mistake in each sentence.

- My neighbour, that has a noisy dog, has gone on holiday. who
- Don't you know nobody that writes their own blog? anybody / anyone
- They went on holiday by himself. themselves
- I don't want to do nothing today. anything
- That's the place when we met. where

4 Complete each sentence with an indefinite pronoun and a relative pronoun.

- I want to meet someone / somebody who loves climbing.
- I'd love to go somewhere where a lot of wild animals live.
- I'd like to invent something which does all my homework for me.
- I haven't met anyone / anybody who I really like.
- I've never been anywhere where everyone rides a bike and nobody drives.

5 In your notebook, complete the sentences for you. Use an indefinite and a relative pronoun in each sentence. Students' own answers

- | | |
|--------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1 I want to meet ... | 4 I haven't met ... |
| 2 I'd love to go ... | 5 I've never been ... |
| 3 I'd like to invent ... | 6 I want to be ... |

6 Complete the words in the text.

Last week I went to an internet conference, ¹where many of the world's most popular influencers and bloggers met. There were some nice talks, ²which surprised me as I usually find ³myself getting bored at these events. I met my favourite games reviewer, ⁴whose name is GeekGuy, but after we'd introduced ⁵ourselves, I couldn't think of ⁶anything to say!