

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

TRYING NEW THINGS

- 6.2 1 Watch the video up to 01:34. Underline and correct one mistake in each sentence.

- The vlogger tried bungee jumping.
wakeboarding
- They went to a river. lake
- His friend told him to be more careful.
adventurous
- He was afraid of getting wet. falling
- In the end, he was unhappy that he went. glad

- 2 Look at the phrases in the box. How do you say them in your language? Underline the words in sentences 1–3 that can be replaced by part of these phrases. Write the correct words next to each sentence.

He had a point.
I don't think so!
Would you try a new sport if your friends did?

- My friends say I am good at dancing, but I don't think I'm that good. so
- I didn't completely agree with her, but I think in some ways she was right. had a point
- I always used to play the same sports as my friends played. did

- 6.2 3 Watch the video from 01:34 to the end. Complete the rules with the words in the box. You do not need all the words.

less more past possible
present unreal

- We use the first conditional to talk about possible situations in the future.
- We use the present simple in the if clause and will + infinitive in the conditional clause.
- We use may, could and might when we are less sure of the result.
- We use the second conditional to talk about unreal situations and describe the result.
- We use the past simple in the if clause and would/could + infinitive in the conditional clause.

- 4 Match 1–5 with a–e to make questions.

- If you saw a wild bear,
  - What would you be afraid of
  - Would you try an extreme sport
  - If you go climbing this summer,
  - How will you call for help
- a if you had to swim across a river?
b if you can't get a phone signal?
c what would you do?
d will it be very dangerous?
e if you had the chance?

c
a
e d
b

- 5 Circle the correct options.

- If you could / would take a year off to travel, where will / would you go?
- If you are / will be afraid of making mistakes, you won't / don't try anything new.
- You won't / don't get on the team unless / if you practise every day.
- Will* / Would you feel worried if you try / tried a dangerous sport?
- I wouldn't / won't take a risk, unless I was / wasn't confident of the result.

- 6 Circle the correct options.

- If you don't make mistakes, you ... never learn.
a will      b would      c don't
- If you were lost in a forest, what ... do?
a you will      b did you      c would you
- If I ... rich, I'd travel round the world.
a am      b would be      c were
- You won't find out unless you ... it a try.
a don't give      b give      c gave
- If we go to Peru, we ... definitely visit Machu Picchu.
a may      b will      c would

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

IN A DIFFERENT COUNTRY

1 Watch the video up to 01:14. Answer the questions.

- Where would she have spent summer?
On the beach
- What creatures would she have been afraid of?
Sharks and spiders
- What word would she have used for sunglasses?
Sunnies
- What famous place would she have visited?
Uluru
- What would she have called her friends?
Mates

2 Look at the phrases in the box. How do you say them in your language? Underline the words in sentences 1–3 that can be replaced by part of these phrases. Write the correct words next to each sentence.

Do you ever wonder about your life?
Imagine!
I've heard there are some frightening animals in Australia.

- Some people say that Australia is very beautiful.
I've heard
- Just think about how your life could have been different. Imagine
- How often do you think about living in another country? Do you ever wonder

3 Watch the video from 01:14 to the end. Circle the correct options.

- We use the third conditional to talk about imaginary / possible situations in the past.
- We use have / had + past participle in the if clause.
- We use would (not) + have / had + past participle in the conditional clause.

4 Complete the third conditional sentences with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- If you hadn't lived (not live) in Japan, would you have learned (learn) to make sushi?
- If my sister hadn't gone (not go) to Italy, she wouldn't have met (not meet) her husband.
- We would have seen (see) the top of the mountain if it hadn't been (not be) so cloudy.
- Elise would have won (win) the singing contest if she hadn't caught (not catch) a cold.
- What other language would you have chosen (choose) if you hadn't studied (not study) English?

5 Rewrite the sentences using the third conditional.

- We didn't get up early so we missed the bus.
If we had got up early, we wouldn't have missed the bus.
- My friend never learned to swim so she didn't go kayaking with us.
If my friend had learned to swim, she would have gone kayaking with us.
- I got wet because I didn't take my umbrella.
I wouldn't have got wet if I had taken my umbrella.
- We ran without taking a break, so we were exhausted.
If we had taken a break, we wouldn't have been exhausted.
- I drank six cups of coffee yesterday and I couldn't fall asleep.
If I hadn't drunk six cups of coffee yesterday, I would have fallen asleep.