When I was small, I used to look out at sea and say to my parents, 'I ¹ I'll sail around the world one day if I can.' One day, we saw a bottle in the sand. Inside was a piece of paper. It said, 'If you ² find this bottle, contact me and your life ³ will change.' There was an address, so we wrote a letter. A month later, a reply arrived with plane tickets to Argentina. The writer was a rich scientist who was researching the ocean. He wrote, 'Thank you so much for your help. If everyone ⁴ was as curious as you, science ⁵ would advance much faster.' We flew to Argentina and had a great holiday. If I ⁶ hadn't seen that bottle, I ⁷ wouldn't have gone to Argentina and I ⁸ wouldn't have become an ocean researcher.
