A day out in Oxford

11am

Start at Oxford Railway Station 1

11.15am – 11.30am

Next stop – Alice's shop. 2

The author Lewis Carroll lived in Oxford. Carroll wrote Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Through the Looking-Glass in the 1860s. These are two of the world's most famous children's books.

Alice's shop was a sweet shop. Alice Liddell (the 'real' girl in the 'Alice' stories) bought her sweets at this shop. Now you can buy sweets, books and souvenirs here.

11.30am – 12.30pm

Visit Christ Church College. 3

The college is part of Oxford University.

The dining hall at this college is the Hogwarts dining hall in the Harry Potter films.

12.30pm – 1.30pm

Shopping at the Covered Market. 4

Oxford's Covered Market started in 1772. Here you can buy Oxford sausages and Oxford Blue cheese to take home.

1.30pm – 2.30pm

Take a special boat called a punt, and go punting. 5

2.30pm – 3.30pm

Take the open-top bus tour round Oxford from outside the Sheldonian Theatre. 6

The tour takes an hour. It's a great way to see Oxford. Don't forget your camera!

Oxford

Can you find ...?

- Where can you buy Oxford sausages?
- How long does the bus tour take?
- Where can you sit at the same table as Harry Potter?
