Inspiring women in the world of sport

The South American surfer

Riding the biggest waves on the Atlantic Ocean is one of the most exciting sportspeople in South America. Her name is Silvana Lima and she is the best surfer in Brazil. But she has had to fight to find the money to enter sporting competitions. Why? <sup>1</sup> ____ They were more interested in what she looked like than what she could do on the sea.

Silvana was seven when she started surfing and has been surfing for 23 years. She has always surfed with the boys and wanted to surf like a man, so she has a very special style of surfing for a woman. She has been the best Brazilian female surfer eight times. <sup>2</sup> ____ She says that she started to ask companies which sell surfing sports clothes to sponsor her. But they all said 'no'. She thinks it was because she doesn't look like a beautiful model from a magazine. And she thinks it's unfair because sportsmen don't have the same problems.

<sup>3</sup> ____ They lived in a simple hut on the beach and she used to imagine what it would be like to live in a real house with next-door neighbours. She built her first surfboard with a plank of wood and from that day surfing changed her life. Eventually, after thirteen years, an important sports company said it would back her and pay for her to take part in surfing competitions. And this meant that at last surfing could give her the chance to help her family too.

The Egyptian pentathlete

Aya Medany is another woman who has had a difficult time in the world of sport. She is from Egypt and used to be a pentathlete, that is an athlete who competes in the pentathlon. She was the youngest ever pentathlete to compete in the Olympics. <sup>4</sup> ____ The first was in Athens when she was only fourteen, then she competed in Beijing, followed by London.

Aya is also a mother, a wife and a university teacher. <sup>5</sup> ____ She says that it is a challenge for married women in her country to continue with their sports careers and look after the home and children at the same time. She wanted to show how girls can continue to follow their sporting dreams after they get married and have families. She hopes that her experience has been an inspiration to those young girls who want to become professional sportswomen.
