1A Ages and stages

Aims: To review words for stages of life and life events and use the target language to describe significant events in someone's life.

Time: 10–15 minutes

Materials: One handout for each student

Exercise 1

- Give each student a handout and ask them to do exercise 1. Give them time to read the sentences and choose the best word to complete each one.
- Check answers with the class and focus on the correct pronunciation for each word.

KEY

- 1 toddler
- 2 twenties
- 3 adult
- 4 centenarian
- 5 infant
- 6 teens
- 7 elderly
- 8 middle-aged
- 9 young child

Exercise 2

- Students choose the correct words to complete a short article. Tell them to read through the whole article first, to get an idea of the general meaning. They should then read it again and do the exercise. Remind them that they should look carefully at the words and sentences before and after each gap.
- Check answers with the class by asking different students to read out a completed sentence in turn.

KEY

- 1 up 2 up 3 up 4 left 5 got 6 away
7 inherited 8 start 9 fell 10 got 11 emigrated
12 start

Exercise 3

- Students work in pairs to play the game. Point out to Student As that they should choose a celebrity about whom they know some basic facts. You could first brainstorm a list of popular celebrities on the board and get students to choose from this list. Remind Student Bs that they can only ask yes/no questions. Ask two students to read out the example dialogue first. Students then continue to work in pairs. When they have finished, they can swap roles.
