

Unit 3 Short Test 2B

Grammar

1 Complete the text with the words below. Use each word once.

can't might must needn't should

School vandalised

Over the weekend, vandals broke into Rivermead School. The police arrived promptly, as did the fire brigade, although they ¹ _____ have come as there was no fire! At a press conference, the police were critical of school security. They said that since there was no sign of any break-in, they were certain that somebody at the school ² _____ have left a door or window open. 'The security guard ³ _____ have checked everything was locked before going home,' said a police officer. 'It was a poor decision to leave the school without proper security.' When asked, the police officer said he didn't know who had carried out the break-in. 'It ⁴ _____ have been students, or ex-students, or just local people who knew the school well,' said the officer. 'I don't know for sure. However, it ⁵ _____ have been somebody who didn't know the school because IT equipment that had been hidden away was taken. The criminals were people who knew where things were.'

Mark: ____ / 5

2 Complete the sentences. Use a modal verb or be supposed to and the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Sometimes there is more than one possible answer.

- 1 You _____ (tell) me that Jo was coming over this evening. I would have cooked more food.
- 2 You _____ (bring) me flowers. I already have lots and lots. But, thank you, anyway. They're lovely.
- 3 How _____ (I / stop) them fighting? My sister's always fighting with her friends, and she's bigger than me!
- 4 Andy only started painting the bedrooms yesterday, so he _____ (finish) painting them yet. Nobody works that fast.
- 5 So, you left the dog in the room with the chocolate. There's only one possible explanation, you know. The dog _____ (eat) the chocolate.

Mark: ____ / 5

Vocabulary

3 Replace the bold British words in the text with American words.

A Brit in New York

New York is incredibly exciting, but so different from cities in England. Firstly, the buildings are so high – huge skyscrapers with ¹lifts _____ that go up a hundred floors, and fabulous cinemas, or theaters as they call them here, which show ²films _____ all day long. The chocolate bars and ³sweets _____ they sell are different here too, as are the ⁴biscuits _____. One thing that is very different is the restaurant culture. In a New York restaurant, when you pay the ⁵bill _____, you have to remember to include a really good tip – waiters get upset unless you tip as much as 20%!

Mark: ____ / 5

4 Complete the compound adjectives with the words below. There are two extra words.

deep far home house long low thin

- 1 I think the thief I saw had _____-set ears. You know, they seemed to be way down near the bottom of his face.
- 2 She has lost a lot of weight and because of her _____-boned frame, she looks far too skinny.
- 3 I prefer baking my own _____made cakes to buying them from a supermarket.
- 4 In the 1970s, there were a lot of _____haired men. Then, in the 1980s, people started wearing it short.
- 5 _____-throated laughter was coming from the hallway. I knew my grandfather had arrived.

Mark: ____ / 5

Total: ____ / 20