

Grammar

1 Make the complaints sound more polite by rephrasing the sentences using seem.

1 This soup is cold.

2 We've got the wrong drinks.

3 This glass is leaking!

4 There's a problem with the order.

5 You've given us chips, not roast potatoes.

6 You've brought the wrong bill.

7 The total is wrong.

	7
--	---

2 Make the statements more polite by rewriting them using the KEY word.

1 I don't believe you've paid the invoice. SURE

2 I know I sent you the order last week. PRETTY

3 You said I could have a discount. UNDERSTOOD

4 I think you made a mistake. THERE

5 I want a refund. HOPING

6 Mr Watkins is not in the office. AFRAID

7 But you didn't say it was urgent. RESPECT

8 Can't you send it by courier? SUPPOSE

	8
--	---

	15
--	----

Vocabulary

1 Complete the fixed expressions with the words below.

black new wet cold asleep

1 soaking _____

2 stone _____

3 fast _____

4 brand _____

5 pitch _____

5

2 Complete the sentences about a problem with something.

1 I can't _____ it to start in the mornings.

2 It _____ stalling.

3 It _____ start without a push.

4 I'm having _____ with the ignition.

5 What is the person talking about? _____

5

3 What word is being defined?

1 all the people who act in a film

the c _____

2 a camera shot taken from very short range

a c _____

3 describes a film which is very obvious and not at all original

c _____

4 a film that is not successful commercially

a f _____

5 describes a film that you enjoy or find amusing but probably is not very serious

e _____

6 the list of people involved in making the film, which is shown at the end

the c _____

7 a film that appeals to a particular, limited group of people, not to the majority of cinema-goers

a c _____ film

8 a film which is based on a book or play

an a _____

9 a long film, dealing with events on a large scale or over a long period of time

an e _____

10 the script for a film, containing the dialogue and camera instructions

the s _____

10

20

English in use

1 Match a sentence from A with the one which could follow it in B.

A

- 1 It was sheer bliss. ☐
- 2 I was petrified. ☐
- 3 It was so embarrassing. ☐
- 4 It was hilarious. ☐
- 5 I was devastated. ☐
- 6 I was livid. ☐
- 7 I was stunned. ☐

B

- a I went bright red.
- b I felt like bursting into tears.
- c It frightened the life out of me.
- d I was over the moon.
- e I nearly hit the roof.
- f I was in stitches.
- g I couldn't believe my ears.

	7
--	---

2 Complete the dialogue.

- 1 'Have you seen any good films _____ ?'
'Yes, I went to the cinema last night actually.'
- 2 'Who's the film _____ by?'
'Steven Spielberg.'
- 3 'Who's _____ it?'
'Julia Roberts and Leonardo diCaprio.'
- 4 'Where's it _____ ?'
'In 1930s New York.'
- 5 'What's it _____ ?'
'A love affair between a poor boy and a rich older woman.'
- 6 'Does it have a happy _____ ?'
'No, not at all. The hero dies in an accident.'
- 7 'What did you _____ of it?'
'It's not bad, but not really my sort of film.'
- 8 'Is it worth _____ ?'
'Yes, if you like that kind of thing.'

	8
--	---

	15
--	----

TOTAL		50
-------	--	----