In this week's issue, we meet Todd Morden. He wants to become the youngest person to visit every country in the world. The twenty-four-year-old Canadian has visited 290 of them and he hasn't finished (there are 321 countries in total)! Planet Discovery talked to Todd.

PD: Have you ever had any bad experiences?

Todd: No, I haven't. Well, I've had some problems with visas. But I've never had any really bad experiences.

PD: Which countries have you enjoyed most?

Todd: I think I've enjoyed Thailand and Libya most - they're so interesting. But in every country people have been nice to me. I've met a lot of very kind people, especially in Africa.

PD: Tell us about your experience with food.

Todd: I've tried everything. Once in Africa, I ate insects. I know they have lots of vitamins, but they were disgusting! I did not say anything to the people who served them. They were very nice and they wanted to offer me the best.
