What were your dreams? What are your dreams?

This week, I want to read about your dreams, past and future. I had a dream when I was a young boy. "I'll become an astronaut if my family moves to Florida." Well, guess what. We're living in Florida now, near the NASA building in Cape Canaveral, and I've changed my mind. I want to be a doctor when I finish secondary school. Tell me about your dreams!

I'm Emily. I'm in the last year of secondary school. Let me tell you about my dreams. When I started school, I wanted to be a teacher. Then a ballet dancer, then an architect. Now I know what I want. I'm going to be a rugby player, a professional one. I love rugby, and I play at school and at the local club. I'm training hard because I want to join the rugby association. I know, I'll send them an email asking for more information. I'll tell you about their answer next week. Bye!

Hi! Interesting topic for this week. We all have dreams. Dreams make our life great. My dream? When I was a young boy, I thought "I want to be a cook." Then I started secondary school. Chemistry lessons were the most interesting, mixing different elements was the best. That's one of the bases of cooking. Now I am studying to become a chef. I am going to open my own restaurant when I finish university. OK, first I have to finish school, but that's my dream. Jack
