

S.1

- 1 I go to the same school as my cousin and we play football together. I don't see his brother James a lot because he's at university now.
- 2 I love going fishing with my grandpa. He doesn't live near us. We visit him and grandma Alice in the school holidays. Everyone says I look like him!
- 3 Most of the time we're good friends! We share the same bedroom. We're twins. We're fourteen and our sister's sixteen.
- 4 I love her cakes! She's a great cook – maybe that's why my uncle eats so much! When I visit my cousins, she always makes us chocolate cake. It's yummy!

S.4 and S.5

- 1
A: How do you spell 'aunt'?
B: A-U-N-T-Y.
- 2
A: How do you spell 'address'?
B: A-D-D-R-E-S-S.
- 3
A: How do you spell 'surname'?
B: S-U-R-N-A-M-E.
- 4
A: How do you spell 'clock'?
B: C-L-O-C-K.
- 5
A: How do you spell 'birthday'?
B: B-I-R-T-H-D-A-Y.
- 6
A: How do you spell 'cousin'?
B: C-O-U-S-I-N.
- 7
A: How do you spell 'money'?
B: M-O-N-E-Y.
- 8
A: How do you spell 'shelf'?
B: S-H-E-L-F.
- 9
A: How do you spell 'cupboard'?
B: C-U-P-B-O-A-R-D.
- 10
A: How do you spell 'cushion'?
B: C-U-S-H-I-O-N.

1.3-1.5

Hi, Jacob. It's Matt here. I'm calling about the street dancing classes. Are you still interested? They start this week and they're every Tuesday after school. They begin at 4.15 p.m. and finish at 5.45 p.m. You can pay for a group of lessons or pay every week. Six lessons are thirty pounds or you can pay five pounds fifty per lesson. The school's in the centre of town. It's on Station Street, next to the shopping centre. It's easy to find. It has a large red door and the name of the school is City Dance. The teacher's name is Mark Rowlands. That's R-O-W-L-A-N-D-S. He's a brilliant dancer. He dances in music videos! You can watch him on YouTube. You phone the school to book a place in the class. The number is 0145 277 656. It's a good idea to phone soon because his classes are always popular. You can wear any clothes, but remember to bring water. I hope you can come! Bye!

2.2

I = Interviewer R = Ross

- I: How much technology does your family use, Ross?
R: My brother and I have a tablet each. We often send emails and stream films.
I: How about your parents?
R: My dad doesn't like computers, but he does have a laptop. He needs it for work. My mum uses her mobile phone all the time. She often downloads music and chats to my aunty online.
I: Thanks, Ross. Do you want us to visit your school next week? Then let us know. You can leave a message on the radio station website. Our address is www.lunardio.com. That's L-U-N-A-R-A-D-I-O dot com.

2.3 and 2.4

- 1
A: Hi, Holly. What are you hoping to get for your birthday?
B: Well, my sister's got this really cool tablet. I'm hoping to get one of those, but they are quite expensive.
A: But you've got a laptop – and it's really new!
B: I know, but it's so heavy! And my mobile phone is too small for watching films and things.
A: True!
- 2
A: Look, there's my computer teacher, Mr McGuire. He's walking into the supermarket.
B: The man in the T-shirt, Harriet?
A: No! He's not that young! Can you see the man in the jacket and T-shirt? That's him. He's standing next to the man with the funny tie.
B: Oh, I know that teacher! He's really nice.
- 3
A: Hi, Maisy. What are you doing?
B: I'm looking at some websites for my homework.
A: Cool. I'm doing my homework on famous painters. What are you doing?
B: I'm writing about famous singers in my country. Look at these photos! They're amazing! Have you got a printer? I want to use these photos in my homework.
A: Yes, you can use it after school.

4

- A: Hi. Can I speak to Charlie, please?
B: Oh hi, Evie. Sorry, Charlie's talking to his brother online. His brother's in Russia at the moment.
A: Ah yes, I remember. Can I call him in half an hour, at a quarter past six?
B: Mmm ... actually, can you call back at six o'clock? Charlie's got a piano lesson at six thirty.
5
A: So, Adam, my brother's got these speakers – they're really good.
B: I need some speakers for my laptop. How much are they? It says £7.49 here.
A: That's the price for the webcams. The speakers are £14.99. How much money have you got?
B: Only £10.50. Never mind.
A: We can look in another shop.

3.2-3.4

B = Ben A = Ava

- B: Hi, Ava. What are you doing?
A: My geography homework. We're studying education around the world. Last week we read about schools in Russia and Argentina. Yesterday we watched a film about Bangladesh in our geography lesson. It was about boat schools.
B: Sounds cool.
A: Yes, our geography films are usually boring, but this one wasn't. The lesson went really quickly.
B: So why were there schools on boats?
A: Because in the rainy season the normal schools on land closed because of all the water and flooding. In dry weather they didn't need these schools.
B: Right. But how did the students get to school?
A: The boat was also like a school bus. It picked students up from their houses. Then it stopped somewhere and classes began.
B: But you can't have computers and stuff on a boat. There's no electricity. How did they work? Did they use big batteries?
A: You're right, there wasn't any electricity like in a normal school. They were solar-powered – they used the energy from the sun. No need for batteries!
B: And how many students studied on these boats?
A: Each boat had a classroom for about thirty-five students. I'd love to go to school on a boat!
B: I'd like to visit one for a day, but not every day. I prefer schools on land!

3.5

R = Rebecca M = Max

- R: Do you remember your first day at this school, Max?
- M: Yes, I do.
- R: How did you feel?
- M: Really worried.
- R: Why were you worried?
- M: Because I was new to the area and I didn't know the school at all.
- R: Where did you live before?
- M: Leeds, in the north of England.
- R: How many people did you already know at the school?
- M: One! My next-door neighbour, Ella.
- R: Who was the first person you met at school?
- M: Jack. He sat next to me in my first lesson.
- R: What was your first lesson?
- M: Maths. I really enjoyed it because I thought Mr Roach was really funny!

4.3

- 1 This is my favourite bag. I bought it in Spain and it cost me twenty-five euros.
- 2 I can't believe this pen is twelve pounds! That's really too expensive!
- 3 Have you got any money? I need two pounds twenty for my bus ticket.
- 4 These sunglasses were a bargain! They were only six dollars fifty.
- 5 How much are these? Are they all eighty cents?
- 6 You're so lucky! I can't believe your gran gave you fifty pounds!

4.6 and 4.7

- 1
- A: How was your shopping trip, Emma?
- B: Good, thanks, Gran. I bought this new notebook. Do you like it?
- A: Haven't you got enough notebooks? I thought you got one for your birthday.
- B: I did, but this one's for my English homework. Anyway, my other notebook's full of drawings now.
- A: Oh, I see. Anyway, come and have lunch now.
- 2
- A: I bought you new trainers for school, Jack.
- B: Thanks, Dad! Oh ...
- A: What's wrong? I thought you liked that shop. Are they the wrong size?
- B: Oh no, I am a thirty-seven and that shop has the best trainers! It's just I need black ones. It's the school rules.
- A: Oh, I didn't know. No problem, we can change them tomorrow.

3

- A: Hi, Adam. It's Sarah.
- B: Sorry, I can't hear you very well.
- A: It's Sarah! Your sister!
- B: Oh hi.
- A: I'm just leaving college and I need to buy some milk and bread on the way home for Mum. Can you catch the bus after school and wait for me at the entrance of the supermarket in town?
- B: Yeah, OK. See you later.
- 4
- A: Did you see anything for your sister's birthday, Tom?
- B: I don't really know what clothes she likes. It's hard shopping for the coolest girl in the school!
- A: She likes books. What about the book shop? Or we can go to that gift shop on the high street.
- B: You're right, she loves reading. Good idea, let's go there.

5

- A: Shall we go shopping now and get your new jacket, Sue?
- B: Can we buy it online instead, Mum? I haven't got much time to practise my guitar before the concert.
- A: Don't you want to try it on? And the shop in town has a sale.
- B: It's the same sale online and I tried the jacket on last Saturday.
- A: Alright then.

5.5 and 5.6

1

- A: I'm really thirsty! Can we get a drink before we go in and watch the film?
- B: Good idea. How much are they? I've only got three pounds left.
- A: Me too. Oh, they're three pounds forty. Oh no, that's the large; the small's two pounds ninety. Do you want lemonade or cola?
- B: Cola, please!
- A: OK, I'll get two colas.
- 2
- A: Hi, Anna. Did you have a good weekend?
- B: Yes, thanks. I went to the theatre with my cousin, Jackie. We watched a really funny comedian.
- A: That sounds good. Is Jackie your cousin with the long blonde hair and glasses?
- B: That's my other cousin. Jackie also wears glasses but has brown hair. You met her at my party.
- A: Oh, I remember.

3

- A: Aaron, it's a quarter to ten. Are you ready to leave?

B: Why? What's happening?

- A: It's the first day of your mum's art exhibition. It starts at half past ten and it takes twenty minutes to get there.
- B: Oh. OK, Dad. I'm coming.
- A: OK. Well, hurry up – and wear something nice!

4

- A: Hi, Barney. How was your first music lesson?
- B: Good, thanks, Mum. My teacher's really nice and he's an amazing guitarist!
- A: Really? Maybe that's something you can try too?
- B: Yeah, I'd like to get better at keyboards first, though. My teacher gave me lots of practice to do. I'm learning to play an Ed Sheeran song.

5

- A: Hi, Dad. Where's Katya? I thought she was watching the horror film on TV in the lounge.
- B: She was, but she's in her bedroom now. She said it was too noisy down here!
- A: Oh, OK. Where's the laptop?
- B: Katya took it from the kitchen and took it upstairs with her. She's watching the film on the laptop.

6.5–6.7

M = Melissa J = Jack

- M: Hi, Jack!
- J: Oh hi, Melissa.
- M: So, are you ready for your party on Saturday?
- J: Yes, I think so. My cousin Alex, from France, is coming too. He's going to catch the Saturday morning ferry with his parents.
- M: Cool! Do you want me to come round before the party on Saturday – to help get the house ready? I can cycle round after lunch.
- J: Yes, please – that will be a big help. I'm going to meet Lily at the bus stop at three. So, she can help us, too.
- M: Will Ewan be on the same bus?
- J: Actually, he'll be at his uncle's house at the weekend. You know, the uncle with the cool motorbike. He'll come on the underground as his uncle lives right next to a station.
- M: Did you invite Henry?
- J: Yes, he's catching the train from Glasgow early Saturday morning. I think it's a five-hour journey. It's much quicker by plane, but also too expensive!
- M: And Emma? Is she coming?
- J: Yes, her brother's driving her to the party on his way to the cinema.
- M: Great! I can't wait!

6.8

- A: Where are you going on holiday this summer, Oliver?
- B: I'm going to Spain.
- A: Lucky you! When are you going?
- B: On the twenty-first of July.
- A: How are you getting there? Are you flying?
- B: No, we're going by boat.
- A: Really? That sounds good. How long are you going for?
- B: Two weeks. I can't wait!
- A: Are you staying in a hotel?
- B: No, we're camping – we're staying in a tent.
- A: I love camping! Are you going with your family?
- B: Just my mum and brother. My dad's working, so he can't come.

7.2

- The ball in this sport is an unusual shape. It's not round, but oval – like an egg. In this sport two teams try to score points by carrying the ball across a special line or kicking the ball over and between metal posts in the shape of the letter H.
- In this sport two teams of eleven players try to score points by hitting a small, hard ball with a bat, and running between two sets of small wooden sticks. The players usually wear white shirts and trousers and the sport is very popular in countries like England, India and Pakistan. One game can last days!
- This sport is really popular in North America. In this game there are two teams of nine players. A player hits a ball with a bat and tries to run around a square on a large field before the other team returns the ball.
- People sometimes play this sport on the beach. In this game two teams use their hands to hit a large ball backwards and forwards over a high net. The ball can't touch the ground.
- This is a water sport. In this sport you need a board with a large sail. You stand on the board, hold onto the sail and travel across the top of the water.
- You play this game outside on grass. Each player has a long thin stick and tries to hit a small ball into nine or eighteen small holes.

7.3–7.5

- A: Do you want to come surfing this afternoon, Lara?

B: I'm not very good at surfing, Alice. I'm having lessons, but I have to practise more before I go out on my own. How about swimming instead?

A: Yeah, sure. I learned a great diving trick at swimming club.

- B: I want to learn to dive! It looks so cool!
- A: I can teach you.
- 2
- A: Mum, where's my football shirt? I have to wear it for football practice.
- B: Isn't it under your bed, Jess?
- A: I just looked there. It was dirty, so maybe it's in the washing machine?
- B: I did some washing yesterday. Maybe it's with the clean washing on the kitchen table.
- A: It is! Thanks, Mum. I'll put it in my sports bag before I forget!

3

- A: Hi, Ann. Do you know what time gymnastics club starts? Is it at three forty-five?
- B: Are you going too, Jo? Brilliant! It's three fifteen until four forty-five. Do you want to go together?
- A: OK, great. Shall we meet outside the gym at three o'clock?
- B: Yeah. See you then.
- 4
- A: Hi, Isaac.
- B: Hi, Rob. Did you have a good birthday last week? Did you get those trainers?
- A: These? Oh, I got these months ago. I got a new racket. My parents bought it for me.
- B: For badminton?
- A: Tennis. It's really cool – I'll show you next time we have a game together.

5

- A: Hi, Matt. I like your new goggles.
- B: Thanks, Kate.
- A: Were they expensive? I have to get some new ones. Mine were four pounds ninety-nine, but they broke after the second time I wore them!
- B: I got mine online for eight pounds forty-nine, but in the shops they're fourteen pounds ninety-nine. They're really good for diving.
- A: I think I'll get some. Can you send me the website later?

8.2 and 8.3

North America
South America
Europe
Africa
Asia
Australia
Antartica

8.4–8.6

- D = Dad L = Lucy
- D: Lucy, dinner's ready in five minutes!
- L: OK, Dad. Do you want to look at my geography project?
- D: Is this the one about mountains?

- L: We did mountains last month and then rainforests. We're learning about rivers and lakes now. Do you like these photos?
- D: They're great.
- L: I downloaded some interesting photos from the internet, but then I found these in a magazine. I thought they were clearer and the colours were just as good. Have you ever seen any of these lakes or rivers, Dad?
- D: I went on a Mississippi river boat when I was a student, but I've never seen the Amazon or the Nile.
- L: I'd like to visit Lake Victoria. It's the largest Lake in Africa. It's three hundred and twenty-two kilometres long! It looks amazing!
- D: It does.
- L: There's a rainy season from March to May. You know it can be cold there, too.
- D: Really?
- L: Yes. In June the temperature can be fifteen degrees in the day and two degrees at night. That's a difference of over ten degrees!
- D: It sounds like you've done a lot of studying about Lake Victoria!
- L: Yes, I have. Can we go there on holiday, Dad?
- D: It's a great place to visit, but it costs a lot of money. Maybe in the future, when you have a good job, you can save money and go. Anyway, time to eat now!

8.7 and 8.8

- Have you ever seen a full moon?
- Has your teacher ever been to Australia?
- Have your parents ever gone mountain climbing?
- Has your best friend ever slept in a rainforest?
- Have you ever found a mouse in your house?
- Have you ever swum in the sea?

8.9 and 8.10

Z = Zach E = Ella

- Z: It's boiling hot today. Let's go for a swim in the river.
- E: I don't know. I think it's dangerous swimming in the river because the water travels so fast.
- Z: Yes, you're right. How about we catch the bus to the coast?
- E: I'm not sure. The bus costs a lot of money. Why don't we walk to the lake and have a swim?
- Z: Because there's a sailing competition there today. We can't swim.
- E: Yeah, you're right. I remember now. The woods will be cool because of all the trees.
- Z: Great idea. I'll get some food from home and we can have a picnic.

9.1 and 9.2

A = Alex D = Dad

- A: Dad, will you let me have a party if I do well in my school exams?
- D: A party? I'm not sure, Alex. I don't want lots of people in the house.
- A: If I have a party, we'll stay in the garden. We can have a barbecue.
- D: Well, that's different then. But not too many friends. I don't want the whole school here!
- A: No, Dad, I'll only invite about ten friends.
- D: And how much will a party cost me?
- A: Well, if everyone brings some food, it won't cost much at all. Please, Dad! I've worked really hard.
- D: OK, I don't mind. But you'll have to ask your mum first.

9.3

- A
- A: Wow! That's a big breakfast.
- B: I know! If I don't have a good breakfast, I'm really hungry by ten o'clock. What do you have?
- A: I usually eat fresh fruit for breakfast.
- B
- A: I feel really tired and I'm bored.
- B: Why don't you get some fresh air? Go on your bike for a bit. If you do some exercise, you'll feel better.
- C
- A: Do you want to go for a walk? It's really sunny outside.
- B: That sounds great, but I've got so much homework to do.
- A: You need to find time to relax, too. A short walk will help you study better. Come on!

9.6-9.8

Hi, Carla. It's Lisa. I'm phoning to let you know about the school picnic. You know it was on Sunday? Well, they've changed it because of the weather. It's now tomorrow, Saturday. We're going to have the picnic in the park on Grove Road. That's G-R-O-V-E. We plan to have the picnic around half past one, but you should get to the park at one to help get things ready. I'm leaving my house at half past twelve, so maybe we can walk together? It doesn't cost anything, but everyone has to bring some food. The teacher gave us a list. I'm bringing salad and the teacher wants you to bring some fruit. Ella's baking one of her amazing cakes! Oh, and you should wear trainers as we'll play some games in the park. If you have any other questions, you can call Mrs Sharp. She's organising the picnic. Her number is 0788 534 566. Anyway, I'm pleased you're feeling better now. We missed you at school. I can't wait to see you tomorrow!

9.10 and 9.11

E = Examiner L = Lucas R = Rosa

- E: You are going to talk together. Here are some pictures that show everyday activities. Do you like these everyday activities? Say why or why not. I'll say that again. Do you like these everyday activities? Say why or why not. All right? Now, talk together.
- L: Well, I enjoy reading because it helps me relax. What about you, Rosa? Do you like reading?
- R: Yes, I do, but I don't read that much in my free time. I enjoy doing exercise. I often go to the gym with my friends and we do different exercise classes.
- L: I don't really like the gym because I don't like doing exercise indoors. I prefer being outdoors and going for a walk or run in the woods near my house. Do you like spending time outdoors, too?
- R: Yes, I love being outdoors because the fresh air makes me feel good. I also like spending free time at home. I love cooking for my friends. Do you like cooking at home?
- L: Not really, because I'm not very good at cooking. I enjoy playing music at home. I play the guitar and I have to practise a lot because I'm in a band.
- E: So, Lucas, which of these activities do you like best?
- L: Well, I like playing my guitar best because music is very important to me.
- E: And, Rosa, which of these activities do you like best?
- R: My favourite activity is baking because I love making food for my friends and family.

10.1

- 1
- A: Hi, Lucy. Did you hear that Miss Parker's leaving?
- B: I know, and she's my favourite teacher. I'm going to buy her a leaving present.
- A: What are you going to get?
- B: I thought about flowers, but they don't last long. I'm going to get her a plant. I thought about a vase, but they're too expensive.
- A: I'm sure she'll love it!
- 2
- A: Are you going to judo club today?
- B: Yes, I am. I'll see you there at four.
- A: It's later today. There's a badminton competition in the sports hall until quarter past four and so we're starting half an hour later, at a quarter to five. The judo teacher sent everyone a message about it.
- B: Oh, I probably forgot. Thanks for letting me know!

3

- A: I like this photo, Tom. Is the girl in the striped T-shirt your sister?
- B: That's my cousin; my sister's standing next to her.
- A: But I thought your sister was at primary school.
- B: That's my little brother. My sister's at university. She's wearing my cap in the photo. She always borrows my stuff – and usually without asking!
- A: My sister's the same!

4

- A: Hi, Nick. Did you have fun surfing yesterday?
- B: We didn't go because it was really windy, which is good for surfing, but not for beginners like us!
- A: That's a shame.
- B: It was fine. We left the beach and went to the woods. We went mountain biking. It rained a bit but we didn't get very wet. It's really sunny today.

5

- A: Are you going on the school trip to the Science Museum?
- B: Yes, I am. I've got the money to pay Mr Jones today. It's twelve pounds fifty, isn't it?
- A: I thought it only cost six pounds fifty to get into the museum.
- B: You're right, it does. But we also have to pay for the coach, so that's another six pounds.
- A: Oh, I see.

10.2

Hello, everyone. As you know, we're going on our theatre trip next week. As well as myself, Mr Harrison and Mr Roach will come. The theatre we're visiting is called the Adelphi Theatre. That's spelled A-D-E-L-P-H-I. Find out about it on the internet. We wanted to go on the twenty-fifth of March, but because of the basketball competition we've moved it to the twenty-fourth of March. We'll meet outside the school gym. You'll need to be at school before lessons start at nine o'clock. We'll meet at a quarter past eight and we'll go at half past eight. Please get to school early – if you're late, you'll miss the coach. So, make sure you catch the earlier bus or train to school that day. The theatre is about an hour and a half from school. You will need to bring your own lunch – something healthy, please. And you will all have to leave your phones at home – I won't be happy if I see any on the day! Any questions?

10.3

- A: Hi, Isobel. I didn't see you after school yesterday.
- B: Oh hi, Finlay. No, I was at that new art class.
- A: Oh I heard about that. Mr Hill teaches the class, doesn't he? He's a friend of the art teacher at school. Mr Hill's a really good artist. He lives in our town – next to Mark's parents' house.
- B: That's right. He's really nice.
- A: So, what did you do in the class yesterday?
- B: Well, we looked at lots of photos of different artists' work. And then we did some drawings. We'll do painting next week.
- A: I'd like to do something like that, but isn't it expensive to buy all that art equipment?
- B: You don't have to. They give you what you need. You just need to bring a large folder to put all your artwork in. They even have old shirts to wear.
- A: Maybe I'll ask if I can go next week.
- B: I think you'll like it. Art lessons at school can be a bit boring, but this is different. In fact, I felt the time went too quickly. It's not too easy and not too difficult.
- A: What are you painting next week?
- B: We're going to do paintings of each other.
- A: I'm afraid I'll do terrible paintings of people and they'll be upset. I'm not very good!
- B: You'll be fine!

10.4

16

Hi, Rosie, it's Mum here. On your way home, can you get some flour, please? I want to make your aunty a birthday cake. I won't make it until this evening, so you don't need to come home early. I hope you're having fun at your friend's. I'm going to collect your sister from athletics club now. See you later.

17

- A: I loved going for a swim in the sea today.
- B: Me too! I think the best part of the day was when we played volleyball.
- A: I agree. And then those delicious ice creams from the beach café!
- B: You mean the ones you dropped on the floor? You need to buy me another ice cream tomorrow!

18

Before you go, don't forget about your homework. You need to write a story about a frightening experience. It's not necessary for the story to be true, but it does need to be interesting! I don't mind about the length. Some very good stories can be fairly short, but it does need a clear beginning, middle and end. So, please ...

19

- A: Hi, Martha. You missed a great party on Saturday. Ella said you had stomach ache.
- B: I heard it was a good party. It wasn't my stomach; I had a temperature. I was really annoyed I missed it.
- A: Are you feeling better now?
- B: I felt better by Sunday morning, but now I've got toothache! I'm going to the dentist's later.
- 20
- A: Hi, Liam. Did you have a good holiday?
- B: Absolutely brilliant, thanks. I've been windsurfing in lots of places, but this was the best. It was an amazing lake.
- A: Did you try sailing?
- B: I wanted to but we ran out of time. I went fishing one day, though. And I caught a fish! Not bad for a complete beginner!
- A: Great!

10.5

- A: So how was your school trip, Alice?
- B: Great, thanks, Grandad. We did lots of activities. We arrived on Sunday, we had dinner and then played table tennis until it was time for bed.
- A: And what about Monday?
- B: The plan was to go climbing in the mountains, but the weather was terrible, so we did indoor activities. I played badminton and some others played basketball.
- A: Did the weather improve?
- B: Oh yes, we went to the beach on Tuesday. We rode horses there! It was so much fun!
- A: It sounds it! Did you go swimming at the beach?
- B: Some people went swimming on Wednesday. I forgot to pack a swimsuit, unfortunately. I joined the group that learned to sail instead.
- A: That sounds even more fun!
- B: It was. On Thursday one group went horse-riding and the other group, which I was in, went on a bike ride. And then it was Friday, the last day – and we finally climbed the mountain. It was great, but it was more tiring than cycling! Do you want to see my photos?
- A: Of course!

10.6

- What's your name?
- How old are you?
- Where do you come from?
- Where do you live?
- Thank you.

10.7

Now let's talk about holidays. Where do you like going on holiday?

How often do you go on holiday?

Now, please tell me something about your best holiday.

10.8

Now you are going to talk together. Here are some pictures that show different free time activities.

Do you like these free time activities? Say why or why not.

I'll say that again. Do you like these free time activities? Say why or why not.

All right? Now talk together.

10.9

Do you think painting is easy? Why or why not?

Do you think cycling with friends is fun? Why or why not?

Do you think playing board games is boring? Why or why not?

So, which of these free time activities do you like best?

Thank you.

10.10

Do you prefer to spend your free time with friends or alone? Why?

What would you like to do in your free time next weekend? Why?

Thank you. That is the end of the test.