Dear diary,

I've got the results of the exam last week, and I'm worried. I study on Mondays and Thursdays, and I think that's OK, but apparently it's not. Ideas? Yes, buy a study manual, and no fast food when I study. I don't want to stop doing gym, it's good exercise and I feel relaxed when I do gym. Maybe TV is the problem, or the novels. OK, no TV for a week. I think that's OK.

Different topic. Today, cinema at 6 with Matt♥. Clothes? A dress and sandals. After the cinema, a hamburger. Can't wait!!!

Tell you about it tomorrow! Love you, diary,

Rachel
