What clothes type are you?

You probably think that there are many different types of clothes. But in fact there are only four basic types: sports clothes, smart clothes (for work or going out), casual clothes and fashion clothes. Some people always wear one type. But most of us wear different types of clothes at different times. Here are some of our readers' comments.

Hussain: 'I always wear smart clothes in the week because I work in a bank. At the weekend, I usually wear sports clothes because I cycle a lot.'

Philip: 'Clothes aren't important to me. I don't often buy my clothes. I sometimes go shopping with my wife, but I don't like clothes shopping.'

Sophie: 'I never wear smart clothes at work because I work at home. But I like fashion and I love shopping for clothes with my friend Jenny at the weekend. Jenny's clothes are always amazing.'

I like people's clothes in London because they are different. Our neighbours, David and Erika, are a good example. They love fashion, but they don't like new clothes. David and Erika's clothes aren't expensive, but they look great.

- 4 Work with a partner. What do you like about the two towns?
Lewisburg has a lot of things to do.

Lewisburg, WEST VIRGINIA

Founded: 1782
Population: 4,000
Average age: 46

Jack: I live in Lewisburg, West Virginia, and I love the place. I'm 68 and it's a great place for people like me. There are only 4,000 people in Lewisburg, but it has the facilities of a big town. There are museums, cinemas and good shops. There's a theatre, too, and the famous Carnegie Hall, as well as many other beautiful old buildings. There are a lot of things to do. We're very lucky. Oh, and there's an amazing bakery – my favourite shop in Lewisburg. They have great pizza. But one problem is that Lewisburg has a lot of visitors. There are nine different hotels for them!

Mount Angel, OREGON

Founded: 1850
Population: 3,400
Average age: 37

Sara: I live in Mt. Angel, a small town in the lovely Willamette Valley in Oregon. Mt. Angel is famous for its festival – the 'Oktoberfest'. There are four nice restaurants in the town. My favourite is the Glockenspiel. It's a German restaurant. But Mt. Angel doesn't have a lot of facilities. There isn't a hotel, for example. There are banks and supermarkets. But there isn't a cinema and there aren't any museums. There isn't a theatre either. There's a golf course near the town, but I don't play golf. But that's OK, because the country is beautiful and the sea is only two hours away by car.

This hotel is great. It's near the beach, but the sea is not very warm in May. The hotel has a nice swimming pool and a small pool for children. In fact, it has a lot of good facilities – tennis, mini-golf and a gym. The rooms are clean and there is air conditioning in every room. The staff are lovely. There are some beautiful walks near the hotel. But there aren't a lot of other things to do. A bus goes to the local town, Nikiti, but there's only one bus every day.

Seven Up! was a 1964 film about fourteen children. But it wasn't a Hollywood film and the children weren't actors. It was a TV film and the characters were real children from different places in England. They were all from different families – rich and poor. There was a new TV film about these people every seven years – in 1970, 1977, 1984, 1991, 1998, 2005 and 2012. In the first film, in 1964, the children were seven years old. In the 2012 film, the 'children' were 56 years old. The films are important historical documents, but they tell amazing personal stories, too.

The famous and the not-so-famous

You know about Leonardo da Vinci and Albert Einstein. But do you know Jan Wnęk and Harriet Chalmers Adams? They are also very important people in history.

Jan Wnęk (1828–1869)

Jan Wnęk was from a poor family. He was born in Kaczówki, Poland and lived there all his life with his wife and three children. Jan was a carpenter and had no school education. But his dream was to fly. He wanted to make the world's first glider. So he studied birds and in 1866 he started to make his glider (twenty years before the famous German aviator, Otto Lilienthal). Jan used his glider to make very short flights between 1866 and 1869. He died in a flying accident in 1869.

Harriet Chalmers Adams (1875–1937)

Harriet Chalmers Adams was born in California in 1875. When Harriet was eight years old, she and her father travelled around California on horses. In 1899, Harriet married Franklin Pierce Adams. They both loved adventure, and they visited every country in South America from 1904 to 1907. When she returned to the USA, she talked to people about her travels and showed her photographs. Over the next forty years, Harriet travelled all over the world and worked on articles about her travels. She helped to start the Society of Women Geographers in 1925. 9.3 News stories

GOALS ■ Use ago to say when something happened ■ Talk about the last time

Reading & Grammar ago

- 1 Work with a partner. Look at the restaurant bill. Why is it unusual?
- 2 Read the news story. Answer the questions.

Unusual tips

Customers in American restaurants always leave a tip for the waiter or waitress. Normally the tip is between 10 and 20% of the cost of the meal. But six months ago in Michigan a customer left a $3,000 tip on an $88 bill and it wasn't a mistake. This started a fashion for big tips all over America. Last week, a worker in a fast food restaurant in California got a $100 tip for a $4 drink, and yesterday a lucky waiter in Los Angeles got a $6,000 tip for his service. No one knows the names of the givers, but people think that it is a group of internet millionaires from California. They have a lot of money and they want to help poor people.

■ millionaire a person who has more than a million dollars, euros, etc.

- 1 What is a normal tip in America?
 - 2 What happened ...
 - a six months ago in Michigan?
 - b last week in California?

The tagelmust is a really long piece of cloth: five to ten metres. Tuareg men wear it on their heads and faces. Its colour is often blue, but sometimes it is black. Blue is a rich colour for the Tuareg people. Men wear the tagelmust because it is beautiful and because the sun and wind is very strong in the Sahara. They don't wear it in the house, but they always wear it outside.

Neil is from Liverpool. He was a clever child. His parents weren't rich and he wasn't at an expensive school, but he was happy. His dream was to be an astronaut. But at twenty-eight, his life was very different. He lived on the streets and life was difficult. Now he has a good job – he's a politician – and he has a house in a beautiful part of England. And he's happy again. Suzy is from London. Her parents were very rich and she was at an expensive school. But she wasn't happy as a child because her parents weren't happy together. The Brothers Grimm, Jacob and Wilhelm, were famous nineteenth century storytellers. They were both born in Hanau, Germany. Jacob was born in 1785 and Wilhelm in 1786. There were nine children in the family. After their father died, life was very difficult. Jacob and Wilhelm weren't rich, but with help from their mother's sister, they went to school. In 1805, they were both students at the University of Marburg. It was a small, but very famous university. The brothers were good students. They were interested in tales and started to collect them. Their first book, in 1812, was Children's and Household Tales. There were eighty-six stories in it. The stories weren't for children at first, but they loved them. Children's and Household Tales wasn't the only book that the brothers published, but it was the most popular.

I met my husband, John, when I was five years old! We knew each other because we went to the same school. I saw him again in a clothes shop in 2010. I was with a friend and he sold a jacket to her. He asked her for my phone number. Then he wrote me a text message. It said, 'Do you want to go out for a meal?' So he came to my house one evening and then we went out to a restaurant. We fell in love and got married in 2011.

I had a terrible day yesterday. I slept badly, so I got up very late. I had a quick shower, got dressed, and went to work. I got to the office two hours late. My boss was there, and he wasn't very happy. I started work immediately, but unfortunately, I forgot the time of my meeting with the team and missed the first half. After lunch, I got a phone call from the school. My daughter was ill. She had a really bad headache and felt sick, so we went to the doctor. On the way out I met an old friend, Cathy. She talked for about an hour so we missed the last bus home. I phoned my husband, but he was in a meeting and couldn't leave the office. So we waited for about two hours and finally got home at eight o'clock in the evening!

I didn't go to work yesterday – it was my day off. So I got up at about nine and had a big breakfast. Then I went shopping in the city centre. It was a beautiful day, so I cycled. I saw some nice hats and shoes in the shops, but I didn't buy them because they were expensive. At lunchtime, I met my friend, Helen, and we went for tea in a café. Then we visited the museum. We saw some really interesting objects from Peru. I got home at about 5 p.m. and my daughter, Elouise, and I started cooking dinner. It was a really nice day.

I'm a university student. I study international relations. I'm going to be a volunteer in Guatemala next summer. My friend and I are going to join a group there. The group is going to work with the local people in the mountains. We're going to be there for three weeks, but we aren't going to take mobile phones, or computers with us! We need $2,000 for this project, and we're going to use the money to pay for flights and transport in the country.
