In my ideal town there is a big park...

Hello, my name's Scarlett. I live in Goolwa in Australia. Goolwa is a beautiful town at the mouth of the Murray River. The name Goolwa means 'elbow' in the Aboriginal language.

Lots of tourists come here during the summer. It is small but there are lots of restaurants and clothes shops.

Near my house there is a bookshop. Opposite the bookshop there is a big pet shop. Next to the pet shop there is a toy shop. The library is at the end of the road, opposite the Boat Museum.

There isn't a swimming pool, but we've got the South Pacific Ocean!

Whale and Dolphin Conservation (WDC) is a global organisation dedicated to the conservation and protection of all whales and dolphins.

The WDC Scottish Dolphin Centre at Spey Bay, in England / Scotland, is home to a population of around 130 dolphins. Dolphins can live in very small families or in large groups. They are friendly / unfriendly, very intelligent creatures and they can live for 40 years.

The bottlenose dolphins in Scotland are the biggest / smallest bottlenose dolphins in the world. They are around 4 metres long, while the same dolphins that live in hot / warm waters are around 2.5 metres long. The dolphins in Scotland are fatter because they have got a lot of blubber in their bodies to insulate them from the cold / warm water temperatures of the North Sea.

At the Scottish Dolphin Centre you can adopt / buy a dolphin and you can also see seals, sharks, whales and lots of other animals.

Greek and she lives in Crete.

I love the sea and I do lots of water sports. In the morning I get up at seven o'clock and I ride my bike to the beach.

Then I meet my friend Tony and we have breakfast together.

We have a cappuccino and a slice of cake. His father is Italian and he's got a coffee bar on the beach.

Then we go by motorboat to Dia. It's a small island and a protected area. It's a fantastic place with rare animals.

The keeper is a nice man. Every day he teaches Tony and me many things about fish.

In the afternoon we usually have a ride by horse on the beach.

Then we swim and have a surfing lesson.

I love my summer holidays!
