My grandfather still remembers his first day trip to the seaside. It was in 1930 and he was only six years old. His parents didn't have a car so they went there by train. They travelled to a beach near Brighton.

It was a beautiful sunny day. My grandfather was very excited. He didn't know how to swim and he didn't have a bathing costume, but he wanted to get into the sea. So, he played in the water with his clothes on.

For lunch, he had fish and chips. Then in the afternoon, he went on a donkey ride. He loved it! They stayed on the beach all day and went home in the evening. My grandfather was very tired but he was happy.

On Wednesday, we went on a day trip to Mt Kingsley. We went by coach to Kingsley Village. Then, we climbed to the top of the mountain. Mt Kingsley is 1,652m high so it was a difficult climb. I was scared but it was fun. Luckily, I had my climbing boots on and my feet were fine. My friend Tom only had his trainers with him, so he had big problems.

Anyway, on Thursday, we went to a seaside resort near the hotel. I did lots of water sports there. It was great! That's all for now.

See you soon,

Rick

Hello Sophie,

Well, here I am in India and it's great! At the moment, I'm sitting in my hotel room and it's really hot. From my window, I can see some amazing plants and flowers.

Yesterday, I went hiking with my friends. We saw lots of different insects and birds. Everything here is more beautiful than at home.

This evening we're going to try some real Indian food. At home, I don't really like Indian food but here, it's delicious!

Tomorrow, we're watching a cricket match. Cricket is the most popular sport here, you know. We're going to see India vs England. It's a big match!

OK, that's all for now.

See you soon,

Peter
